Society of First New-York Mounted Rifles will be held at "Rogers's," No. 6 Park Place, on February 22.

The Metropolitan Museum of Art is open free to the public from 10 a. m. to sunset on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, on Sunday afternoons from 1 o'clock to sunset, and on the evenings of Mondays and Fridays. On Mondays and Fridays from 10 o'clock until sunset copists, artists and members of the Museum only are admitted free; others have to pay an entrance fee of 25 cents on these two days.

The second reception of the Young Ladies and Gentlemen's League of the Montefiore Home will be held at Carnegie Music Hall on February 22.
The Rev. Dr. Joseph Silverman will deliver an address, and there will be a vaudeville performance and dancing.

A conference of men and women engaged in rescue work in the large Eastern cities will be held at Clark's, in West Twenty-third-st., on Tuesday at 7 p. m. A dinner will precede the serious business of the evening. The Rev. Drs. Parkhurst, Dixon and Greer and R. Fulton Cutting will be among the speakers.

A monthly meeting of the Underhill Society of America is set for next Saturday, at 530 p. m., at the Friends' Meeting House, in East Twentieth-st., Gramercy Park.

The Rev. Dr. Newland Maynard will deliver an

NEWS FROM THE SUBURBS. WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

YONKERS.

Patrolman James Robinson, of the Yonkers police force, surprised a burglar at work on Friday night in the house of Polham Warren, at No. 123 Glenwood-ave. The family is spending the winter in New-York City, and the house was unoccupied and in charge of the police. Robinson found a rear window open, and crawling in saw a man in the centre of the parlor floor. As soon as the thief caught sight of the officer he ran to the second story and jumped out of the window. The officer rushed out of the house in time to see the fellow running down Glenwood-ave. An exciting chase through yards and over fences followed. Robinson firing several shots, none of which took effect.
The thief cut across the Croton Aqueduct, and disappeared. When interrupted in his work, he had two feed-bags, filled with lace curtains, rugs, linen and clothing. An attempt was also made during the same night to enter the Lawson house, at No. 28 Palladium-ave., but the thieves were frightened away, after breaking a pane of glass in one of the rear windows.

A special meeting of the Yonkers Common Council was held on Friday to take action on the death of Alderman Thomas J. Lally. Acting Mayor John J. Broderick presided, and there were present Aldermen James P. Dunn, George Kaler, Michael Mooney, John H. Schibohm, Leslie Sutherland and Abram H. Tompkins. The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That in the death of Thomas J. Lally we believe the city has lost a valuable and faithful servant, and this board a valuable councillor and associate; that we deeply sym-patize with his bereaved family in their affliction; that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the minutes, and that a copy, signed by the Mayor and City Clerk, be transmitted to the family of the deceased." The board then adjourned.

Frederic W. Hall, a member of the Constitutional Convention and one of the Committee on Cities, spoke to a large audience in the hall of the Woman's Institute on Friday evening, under the auspices of the Yonkers Good Government Club.
His subject was "Municipal Government."

This evening the Rev. E. S. Widdemer, rector of Christ Episcopal Church, will preach a special sermon to the Young Men's Auxiliary and to the young men of the city to be present has been issued.

MOUNT VERNON.

At the meeting of the Friday Night Literary Society at the home of Mrs. I. W. Whitmore, in South First-ave., Friday evening, Joseph S. Wood gave a talk on "Buddhism and Brahminism." He began with the foundation of both religions, and gave an interesting and instructive discourse, garding them. After the talk, supper was served, and among others present were Aldermen D. W.
Whitmore, Mrs. Joseph S. Wood, Professor and Mrs. Jacques B. Revay, Professor and Mrs. A.
Williams, the Misses Andrews, Dr. and Mrs.
M. S. Pace, Miss L. Adele Ford, Miss Sutherland, Mrs. Henry E. Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M.

NEWARK.

Abraham D. Solover, a jeweller doing business in the Prudential Building, made an assignment yesterday to George D. Lambert. The liabilities are $2,562 49 and the assets are estimated at $1,087 77.
The largest creditor is W. H. White & Co., secured by notes given by Solover's father-in-law. The creditors will probably get 50 cents on the dollar.
The funeral of Samuel S. Sargent was held yesterday at the house, No. 81 Mount Pleasant-ave., the services being conducted by the Rev. F. C. A.
Jones, of the Mount Pleasant Baptist Church. The pall-bearers were John M. Gwinnell, C. S. Stockton, W. A. Ure, George R. Howe, Isaiah Peckham, S. V.
Hulse, Walter L. Starr, F. R. Manville, and Frederick S. Fish. The burial was in Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

The Essex Troop has purchased the Roseville Riding Academy Building, and plans are being prepared to remodel it and convert it into an armory for the troop.

Senator Daly, of Jersey City, visited Newark yesterday as counsel for Dr. Frank G. Dudenhausen, who was arrested on Friday night on information from the District Attorney's office in Brooklyn.
Dudenhausen alleges that while on a spree at chambray and alimony. In an affidavit made in Brooklyn, Dudenhausen swore that he had not been married to his wife, and on this affidavit he was indicted for perjury by the Kings County Grand Jury.

In the courts yesterday Judge Deane granted a rule to show cause why a mandamus should not be granted to compel the city of Orange to pay judgments against it on certain claims. The proceedings grew out of the construction of the Orange sewer by the Deafened Company, which was made defendant in a dozen suits. Ten of the plaintiffs secured judgments, which, while liens, were made on the city. They amount to $300.

The Newark Teachers' Institute held a session in Association Hall yesterday. Superintendent Barrington presiding. Addresses were made by William E.
Bissell, Dr. Hamilton W. Noble and Dr. Charles De Garmo, president of Swathmore College.

PATERSON.

A farewell dinner to ex-Mayor David T. Gillmor was given on Friday night at the Hamilton Club, Paterson, N. J., the occasion being the approaching departure of the well-known old Republican for Pasadena, Cal., where, on account of his children's health, he will make his home. The affair drawn a remarkable collection of old Patersonians prominent in business, political, Masonic and Grand Army circles, and not one of the men invited to de honor to Mr. Gillmor had known him less than twenty-five years. Colonel Joseph W. Condon presided, and among those present were ex-Mayors Dr. Graham, Barrington and Beveridge, the Rev. Dr.
Baker, Dr. C. P. W. Myers, Dr. T. Y. Kinne, Sheriff Johnston, Surrogate King, County Clerk Winfield,

County Collector Shields, Charles Burrows, Captain Curie, William Bertkau, L. A. Piaget, James A. Morrissey, W. J. Buckley, Charles F. Kirker, H. H. Ryskyer, George S. Simson, C. C. Shelby, F. W. Mentlich, A. L. McCullach, John F. Buckley, Charles N. Sterret, Helmas Romaine, J. A. Van Winkle, John A. Stoney, Robert Trimble, M. Edward Seery, Charles N. Smith, Samuel M. Schoonmaker, William J. Lockwood, J. W. Baldwin, Charles H.
Key, Walter Doremus, Jacob Weidmann and A. S.
Allen. The speaking was informal, and there was singing by a quartet from Farragut Post. The Hamilton Club gave the use of its room for the occasion. Mr. Gillmor was for years one of the best-known drygoods merchants in Paterson. He had been master of Ivanhoe Lodge, F. and A. M., and commander of Farragut Post, G. A. R.

JERSEY CITY.

A "water indignation" meeting was held at St.
John's Lutheran Church, at Summit-ave. and North-st., Jersey City, on Friday night to protest against the scarcity of water on the Heights. A committee, of which the Rev. J. C. R. Luebbers, pastor of the church, was a member, reported that the members had waited on Mayor Wanser and were told that the best thing they could do would be to go back to their church and pray for water. Mayor Wanser says that the statement is not true.

RUTHERFORD.

The closing dance of the coterie of young people known as the "Assembly" took place at the Union Club Auditorium on Thursday night, and was a fancy dress affair. Souvenirs were given, and the dancers unmasked at the end of a march, which took place before midnight. Those present included the Misses Allison, Prentiss, Burrows, Douglas, Street, Weaver, Cumings, Blakeslee, Kipp, Burgess, Stevens, Ten Broeck, McNulty, Childs, Daniel, Rice, Kimball, Smilie, Everell and Lockwood, and Messrs. Prentiss, Killmer, Rice, Goodspeed, Hernandez, Burgess, Mackenzie, Daniel, Craw, Kipp, Brinkerhoff, Wolf, Blakeslee, Terry, Elliott, Weaver, Hollett, Bradley and McCarty.
Miss Dorothy Burrows has been appointed assistant librarian at the Rutherford Free Library.
The Book Committee has decided to devote most of the recent appropriation to works of current fiction.

PASSAIC.

The Passaic Club proposes to celebrate the 163d anniversary of Washington's Birthday by a dinner on Thursday evening, February 22, at the clubhouse, Prospect-st., Passaic. Ex-Senator Griggs, William Nelson and others will be the guests.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER SUE.

THE GRAVE ACCUSATIONS OF MISREPRESENTA-TION AND FRAUD MADE AGAINST HIM IN DULUTH BY ALFRED MERRITT.

A suit has been brought in Duluth, Minn., by Alfred Merritt, of Duluth, against John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate, to recover $120,000 alleged to have been acquired through misrepresentation and deception. It is alleged that Mr.
Rockefeller induced several successful iron-mining companies in Minnesota, represented by Alfred Merritt and his brother, to consolidate with companies represented by Mr. Rockefeller, and that these last-named companies were insolvent and worthless. For the last few days Alfred Merritt and his attorney have been in this city taking depositions in favor of the plaintiff before B. W. J.
Fox, a notary public, at the office of ex-Judge Dillon, and on Friday the testimony was taken of Charles T. Rand, of No. 6 Wall-st., who was an officer of one of the alleged insolvent companies represented by Mr. Rockefeller.

From the testimony, it appears that an effort was made to consolidate all the valuable ore mines in Minnesota with the Spanish-American Iron Company, having iron interests in Cuba, and the Penokee and Gogebie consolidated mines, which controlled the iron interests in Michigan and Wisconsin. It was represented that Mr. Rockefeller owned large blocks of stock in both concerns.
The new company was to be known as the Lake Superior Consolidated Mines Company, and was so incorporated under the laws of New-Jersey. It is alleged that Mr. Rockefeller wanted to be paid for his interest in the Spanish-American Iron Company in bonds of the new company, and thus, while he obtained first mortgage bonds, the Merritt family stock, it is asserted that subsequent developments showed that the stock of the companies sold by Mr. Rockefeller for a large sum was worthless.

At Mr. Rockefeller's office it was said yesterday that answers in the suit would be made at the proper time. Mr. Rockefeller was not at his office, and his representative refused to discuss the suit.

TO CONTROL HORSESHOEING BY LAW.

A BILL TO BE INTRODUCED AT ALBANY THIS WEEK CREATING A BOARD OF EXAMINERS.

A bill will be presented in the Legislature early this week which will be of special interest and benefit to the horse-shoers of this city and State.
The bill provides, in brief, that a Board of Examiners, consisting of three veterinary surgeons and two master horse-shoers, shall be created, who shall be empowered to issue certificates as master horse-shoers to those passing satisfactory examinations. Persons applying for certificates must be citizens, residents of the State for a year, and apprentices at the trade for at least four years.

Each master horse-shoer must be registered, and the County Clerk of each county must provide a book, to be known as "The Master-Shoers' Register," in which shall be recorded the names of those registered, who shall then be entitled to continue the practice of horse-shoeing. Provisions are also made for the violations of the law, as here outlined. Horse-shoers say that the bill is one that has long been needed, both as a protection to shoers and to owners of horses. The Horse-shoers' Association of the State of New-York and the National Association are heartily in favor of the bill.

Dr. Haines, of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, and Dr. Edison, of the Board of Health, are also in favor of it, as well as Dr. S. K. Johnson, a well-known veterinary surgeon. The officers of the Horse-shoers' Association are David J. Roche, president and State organizer; M. J. Hassett, secretary, and Christopher Greamer, treasurer. The bill will be offered in the Assembly by Daniel E. Finn, and in the Senate by Senator Bradley.
